

TERMS & CONDITIONS

1. Service Provided You're purchasing a one-time AI consulting response, delivered as a prerecorded voice memo. One follow-up message is included for clarification only.

2. Delivery Timeline Your memo will be delivered within 24 hours of receiving your prompt (weekends included). Delivery delays caused by events beyond my control (system outages, emergencies, etc.) don't entitle refunds but will be communicated.

3. Refund Policy All sales are final. A memo will be delivered for every purchase unless impossible due to factors beyond my control, in which case a refund or credit will be offered.

4. Confidentiality & Usage All consultations remain private. Your prompts and memos won't be shared without permission. My memos are for your personal use only—redistributing or publishing them without consent isn't allowed.

5. Limitations & Liability The advice provided is for informational purposes only. I'm not responsible for any outcomes from your use of the advice. Any disputes will be resolved under the laws of NC, and handled in small claims court if necessary
